

5 FACTS ABOUT MOHAMMED BIN SALMAN BIN ABDULAZIZ AL SAUD

1

Mohammed Bin Salman Bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, commonly known as MBS, is the Crown Prince of Saudi Arabia, holding the title since June 2017.

2

He is recognized as the youngest minister of defense globally at the time of his appointment, along with holding positions such as deputy prime minister and chairman of the Council for Economic and Development Affairs.

3

MBS is the driving force behind Vision 2030, a plan aimed at diversifying Saudi Arabia's economy away from oil dependence, while also initiating progressive reforms like lifting the ban on women driving and promoting tourism.

4

Estimates of Mohammed bin Salman's net worth vary greatly, ranging from around $25 billion to as high as $500 billion, reflecting his control over Saudi Arabia's vast assets and making him one of the wealthiest individuals globally.

5

His sources of income include significant control over Saudi Arabia's oil reserves as a member of the royal family, active investments through the Public Investment Fund (PIF), and ownership of luxurious real estate and assets worldwide, including the world's most expensive home in France.